PAKFONG - A Mystery For Centuries!

Over 2,000 years ago a flaming meteorite flashed through the skies to strike the earth in China. The Chinese found that a metal taken from the meteorite made an excellent alloy from which swords could be made. Truly these were "Swords-sent-from-Heaven" decided the Chinese warriors, when they found that such swords could snap other weapons in two when engaged in battle.

For centuries the Chinese held the secret of this wondrous metal which, when alloyed with other metals, had so many worthwhile uses. One particular alloy which has a beautiful silvery appearance was known to the Chinese as "pakfong". For centuries the Chinese reaped profits in trade because of their exclusive knowledge of how to manufacture pakfong.

During the eighteenth century prospectors in Saxony rediscovered our "magic metal" but found that even after burning the ore for weeks the metal could not be separated. Because of their superstitions the miners feared that it was bewitched. Undoubtedly the culprit was "Old Nick", the king of the gnomes, who had the power to go through the ground as readily as through the air, or on the earth's surface, and it was "Old Nick" who thus gave his name to this most useful metal called nickel.

The problem of extracting from its ore was solved by scientist A. F. Cronstedt in 1751, an event which marked two hundred years later in 1951, by Canada in the minting of a special nickel commemorative. This 5¢ piece so well known to collectors is strangely enough the subject of misunderstandings by the non-collector. Perhaps you would know what I mean if you had been plagued with 'phone calls at various hours of the day or night from members of the public who have what they believe is a "rare 1751-1951" nickel. Some of our citizens are quite sceptical and even angrily indignant when informed that their "find" while an interesting and popular coin, is not a expensive one!

It is, of course, fitting that Canada should have indicated its interest in nickel by means of the striking of the 1951 coin. Over half the world's supply comes from Canadian mines at Sudbury, Ontario!

When alloyed with other metals (e.g. with copper and zinc to produce our fabulous "pakfong", now known as "nickel silver"), nickel displays many useful characteristics. It makes the alloy harder and stronger, prevents rusting, pitting or corroding and can stand great heat, speed and pressure. Because of these features nickel has countless well-known uses in the modern world. However, as coin collectors, we are most interested in the many attractive coins made of nickel alloys. The first country to use nickel for coins was Belgium in 1859, with the United States being second in 1865. Canada, the world's largest nickel producer, was late on the scene with the start of her nickel series in 1922.

The "MERCURY" DIME

By Earl A. Mc Brayer

(3rd article of a series on grading)

Many people believe that Mercury, ancient god of thieves, graces the United States dime which was struck between 1916 and 1945. Roman Mercury was also god of merchants and this is most appropriate for money! Despite the resemblance the representation is in fact not that of Mercury but rather of Liberty with a winged cap.

There is something Roman on the dime though. The reverse contains the fasces (bundle of rods- Roman symbol of authority), and the inscription, "E PLURIBUS UNUM" (one from many), in the words of the Roman tongue.

Pictured above are selected specimens to illustrate, as well as is possible through the printed medium, different grades of the so-called "Mercury" type dime.

Recently a person called the writer up and wanted to know what mint the "mint-mark" "AW" denoted. The "AW" which is located back of the neck on the obverse of the dime are the initials of the designer, A. A. Weinman. The mint-mark is actually located on the reverse to the right of the 'E' in 'ONE' and may be seen above on items 1, 2, 4, 5, and 6.

For those who try to fill an album of "Mercury" dimes there are only two really 'tough' items. The 1916-D and the 1942 over 41. Of the former there were 264,000 coined (compare this with 484,000 1909-S vdb Lincoln cents). Of the latter the number struck is uncertain. There are eight others which always command a premium in good or better condition. They are 1921-P and D, 1926-S, 1930-S, 1931-S and D, 1927-D and 1917-D. Watch for these, the writer found a very good 1926-S (value about ninety cents) just this week. For further encouragement: Mr. James Irons of Aurora, Indiana, notified the Flying Eaglet that he had found a very fine 1942 over 41 dime during the month of January.

AD FORMS CLOSE THE 20th OF EACH MONTH.

Entered as second class matter October 13, 1956 at the post office of Newark, New Jersey under the act of March 3, 1879.

From Your Editor's Desk —

By the time you get your March issue we hope the weather is better, as you probably already have experienced lots of snow and cold temperatures. Here at Newark we were snowed in with some 15 inches. Spring will be a welcomed sight!

January 29th yours truly was hospitalized for four days for nasal surgery. The bone septum and membrane polyps were the cause of continued headaches and stuffiness. I was happy to be up and about and help get the February issue out on time.

The latest news today is the Recession. How will it effect our hobby? We are having a mild one and usually do after war time peak years. Better business and more jobs are expected in the next few months. This may be what we need to allow us all to reevaluate the current high cost of living. This will no doubt effect luxury and also designate future trends of the coin hobby. I believe the collector will be more conservative in purchases, condition and grading.

Recently a new $5. bill brought to mind of years when I used to study the Lincoln Memorial Building on the obverse to check and count the number of states inscribed above and in between the pillars. If you haven't noticed this, check on it. A magnifying glass and a fairly new $5. is needed to see how many state names you can find.

Occasionally we still receive letters and cards in reference to the mail problem. You may have read about this a number of times, but as this is important I will give our readers a briefing and try to clarify it better.

Our issues are mailed by second class permit. If your copy is late or lost we have no way of checking this. It is up to you to inquire of your mail carrier or write your local post station. Once our copies are in the mail we have no control of it. Check tracers are not allowed on this type of mail. The delivery of your copy is dependent on the locality and the amount of mail your station handles. A number of inquiries have been sent to our Newark Post Master by the editor in reference to these problems. I was assured all that was possible was being done. We publish between the 1st and 3rd days of the month, therefore, you should receive your copy within 3 to 12 days depending on distances and the amount of mail your station can handle. As we continue to increase our circulation, so will our problems. Your continued cooperation is appreciated.

While we are on the subject of mail, if you are writing to anyone for information etc. be kind enough to enclose a self-addressed envelope for a quick reply. Many letters are not answered or layed aside until time is found.

Tom Wass, former president of the Brooklyn Coin Club and long time a coin dealer has opened a new coin store at 109 West 45th Street, New York.

John Zurine of Simpson, Pa., reports finding a 1957 copper nickel. He also states ordering (4) 1957 proof sets in July 1956 and received them January 20, 1958. Ed Bushman of Racine, Wisc. noting our February issue of the 1926-S quarter with extra fold has (3) with the letter E at the right of the right knee.

Word has been received from two persons stating there may be a change in the new 1957 $1. series. The change may be in the form of a smaller bill due to mechanical difficulties. Presently the bills are printed (32) to a sheet. The previous issues were (18) bills to a sheet.

As per our offer of (4) 1958 proof sets being given away free to our readers (check front page). We haven't received any entries other than guess figures of the amount of proof sets struck for January. Our winner for January with the closest guess is David Doering of Stafford, Kansas. His guess was 27,808.

If you think you can venture a close guess figure of the amount of 1958 proof sets that will be struck for February send it in and win a free 1958 set. There were no entries for the best find, best exhibit, club attendance. Club secretaries, send in your reports and win a prize for your club or member.

GRADING STANDARD

PROOF—Coin, a mirror-like finish, especially struck for collectors on polished metal blanks and struck by slower hydraulic press to obtain best feature lines.

UNCIRCULATED made for general circulation has lustre but never reaches circulation. A Gem Unc. is unusually well struck has lustre no scratches, rubbings or mars.

EXTRA FINE & A. U.—about same. Coin is about uncirculated, slightly worn on high points and may have some mint lustre.

V. FINE—Has been circulated but all features and lettering are sharp.

FINE—Has all features and lettering but not sharp. Liberty is readable.

V. G.—Has border rims most features and lines visible. Part of Liberty visible.

GOOD—All features and lines worn but visible.

FAIR—Considerably worn.

POOR—Considerably worn smooth, or corroded, good only as space filler.

This grading is used only as a guide to help you and is a general medium used by all dealers and collectors in the Numismatic field.

POINTS TO LOOK FOR ON SOME POPULAR COINS.

1 CENT LINCOLN: The lines on wheat stalk and Lincoln's ear are a good spot to look for wear. On a coin classed as very good most lines should be showing, on a coin graded fine they should be sharp.

5 CENT LIBERTY: E Pluribus Unum is legible on coins graded good, clear on coins graded very good. One graded fine should have full liberty.

5 CENT BUFFALO: On a good coin edge of word Liberty may be slightly worn, but on one graded very good the word Liberty is clear and one-half of horn shows, a fine coin should have nearly a full horn, a coin classed as very fine has full horn and tail shows on hip.

10 CENT MERCURY: Watch lines on fasces, on coins classed very good some fasces lines show, a fine coin should have most all lines.

FOR BEGINNERS who are just starting to collect, here are a few suggestions and some advice. First, a coin guide book is a must. They can be purchased for $1.00 or more for helpful information: on care, condition, value, amount minted, types, how coins are made, and other news of help and interest. Most coins can be found in circulation. As you are making your set always try to improve the worn coins. Value of coins depends greatly on the condition. Never clean or polish coins unless you are experienced. If you must try, use a common date coin. There are handy cleaning kits available for this purpose. Coin insert folders and other supplies can be obtained at your dealer. You may also notice that the age of old coins do not make them rare. There are some late date coins minted that are worth more than some hundreds of years old. What makes one coin worth more than another are by these factors: Amount of coins minted, availability, collectors demand and any unusual die strikes. Coins can be obtained through purchases, by auctions or trading with collectors. Mint sets can be bought by writing the Treasury Dept., U. S. Office of Treasury, Washington 25, D. C., at face value, plus postage and handling. To obtain Proof Sets of current year send $2.10 money order to Supt. Phila. Mint 16th and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. You may order as many sets as you wish. Commemorative half dollars are authorized periodically by Congress. These halves when issued are not sold by the mints, they are turned over to a Commission authorized by Congress at face value. The Commission then sells the halves at a premium.

PAPER MONEY ROUND-UP

UNCHARTERED WATERS

By Harold Don Allen

I don't think any area of numismatics can offer the surprising discoveries and interesting sidelines that come with casual foreign paper money research. Among the small, but growing, clan of serious foreign paper money enthusiasts, day by day discoveries can set off whole new waves of interest. No foreign paper series is truly "dead".

Let me illustrate. Every money collector, even if he restricts himself (a dismal thought) to proof sets or a single series, is confronted from time to time with the "odds and ends" semi-numismatic accumulations of his neighbors. A handful of European coins brought back by a soldier. A few grubby inflation bills or military scrip. A battered old nickel supposed to be a "rare" date. So it goes. Yet your paper money enthusiast can get all the kick of a child with a new toy out of going through another fellow's numismatic "junk", folding kind. Varieties and variations abound. Catalogues and price lists fail to record them. Just about the only way you can pick up new knowledge and minor additions is by handling foreign paper in bulk. Two good examples come to mind:

German inflation notes of 1923 vintage are just about a dime a dozen in their common varieties. Yet, by way of contrast, FPM dealer Dwight Musser, 432 20th St., Dunbar, W.Wa., offers an archrarity at $36, crisp!) These common varieties can form the nucleus of a fascinating collection. And very much do they merit more than a second glance. For the interesting varieties can be in the watermarks. Several striking overall patterns were employed. The same bill often can be found on two or more different papers. Variations in inks, serialing, and paper tinting also abound.

Often a single note type, issued in the millions, turns up in pleasing and surprising varieties. Such a bill is the low-value one baht, of Thailand (Siam). Just at press time, paper money enthusiast Jeff Sandrock (509 Franklin Rd., Lexington Park, Md.) turned up a new type in which the sprawling signatures (in what might be Martian!) had been reduced in size and the traditional urn watermark profile of the young King of Siam. Note that the basic plates were unaltered in these changes. Other variations in the Thai baht have included changes in the vignette (the Royal portrait, as the young king grows up and the colour of the serial overprint, in Thai and Arabic digits. The attractive little blue bill, skillfully produced in London, is quoted on foreign exchange at 4.86 U.S. cents!

Variations within a currency series are most familiar to North American collectors in the forms of signature varieties (notably the U.S.), seal colours and positions (Mexico, and pre-1935 Canada) and retouched vignettes (the U.S. $20, White House, and the fabulous "devil" coiffure on Canada's Queen Elizabeth notes). Such changeovers within a series normally do not interrupt the serial sequence, which makes for a specialized form of rather avid collecting. The type enthusiast delights in chasing down crisp notes with serial numbers as close as possible to the changeover, the last of the old type and the first of the new. Miles of walking, and long waits in branch banks, can be involved. Only a true paper money addict can appreciate the joys of such a hunt!

* * *

So many of us spend so much of our lives hunting and scra-bling for the notes that we want and need, building our accumulations by ones, twos and threes to comprehensive collections of which we feel we can be proud, that it makes you stop and catch your breath when a really imposing foreign paper collection changes hands in a single deal. This month's Schulman sale provides a good instance of just that. Offered as one lot is a collection of 607 different Russian notes. The suggested bid is $300. To most of us, who balk at collecting a £5 note, the figure may seem staggering. Growing interest in foreign paper among the more serious collectors make this writer suspect that the lot should go as the bargain of the year, in the light of likely future trends. Notice, too, that the unequalled collection of paper money of the Mexican revolution, built up over the decades by author, cataloguer and collector of many tastes, Arlie Slabaugh, recently changed hands. The new owner, West Coast obstetrician Walter Loeb (4568 E. Mercer Way, Mercer Isld., Wash.) already ranks with the top among paper money enthusiasts on this continent.

* * *

The current fiasco over Gold Certificates makes one wonder how many strange and desperate laws a collector encounters in building his bank note accumulation. I cannot but wonder if I am an "accessory after the fact" when I proudly display my Maltese pound. It is a serious offence to let any form of paper money leave Malta. Yet I bought mine strictly "above board", for Canadian cash at a Montreal centre of foreign exchange. The laws against photographing bills are carried to truly absurd lengths by some nations, including Canada. I had nothing less than the legendary R.C.M.P. on my trail for trying to get a photographer to make me small facsimiles of a note from a bank that failed in 1859! Keeps life interesting!

Large Cent Obverse

Reverse

Small 5 Cent Silver

The above photos show the 1919 Canadian small 5 cent silver piece. This is an enlargement. The actual size is smaller than a U.S. dime or the size of the U.S. 3¢ silver piece. The value of an uncirculated piece is $2.00. If you should be lucky enough to have one of these 5 cent pieces with a 1921 date it's worth $125.00 circulated and $300.00 uncirculated. Although some 2,501,238 pieces were struck of this rare date there are only (80) known.

Also shown above is the 1859 large cent. There are (4) varieties of this date, they are: the re-engraved date over 58, the narrow 9 over 58, and the wide 9, the narrow 9 over 58 is the most scarce and is valued at $35.00 uncirculated. There were 9,579,000 pieces struck of this date. Carlton's 6th edition of Canadian coins illustrates these four varieties plus over 300 others and also has a listing on Newfoundland coins, valuations, mint report and other important information. This catalogue can be obtained by writing to most any of the advertisers on this page.

RAOUL ROSE

186 Seaview Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.

HE 4-7843

Ed. B. Strozyk, of 807 Minnesota Ave. South Milwaukee, Wisc. reports finding a B.U. 1945 Canadian cent, which can be attracted by a magnet. This issue is bronze. It may well be an off metal alloy of steel. A magnet does not attract the following metals; Gold, Silver, Copper, Lead, Aluminum and nickel. Has anyone else found a similar coin, as the 1945 cent?

Persons wishing any additional information please write to the secretary — Albert Wilson 151 W. Princeton, Pontiac, Mich.

Dear Sir:

I enjoyed the article on Canadian Silver Dollars in the current months issue immensely.

Believe me next to the two other magazines the "Flying Eaglet" is the best. Keep it up!

1926-S EXTRA FOLD CLOAK

The following readers have reported finding the new variety of the 1926-S standing Liberty 25¢ as per our article in the February "Eaglet".

Mrs. Louise Holek of Cicero, Ill.; Jess Bausher of Gibraltar, Pa. has one in fine. Kenneth Morrison of Metuchen, N. J. and G. Sullivan of Berkley Hgts., N. J.

—O—

Dear Sir:

I'd like to report this "find". I found a 1942/1 Mercury dime, AF, in pocket change last week. This coin completes my Mercury dime set. All coins found in circulation - up until then I had found at least one of every date and mint but had about given up finding the 42/1.

—D. Doering
Stafford, Kansas

—O—

Sir:

I like the new section on Canada, as I am specializing in Newfoundland and Canadian coins. There is one thing I wish you would please publish, that is the Canadian Mint Report for 1957.

I also approve of the letter "P" on proof sets as very good and sound idea.

The 17th meeting of the Newark Coin Club was held on the 5th of March 1958, at the downtown branch of the Y.M.-Y.W.-C.A., with 35 in attendance.

Among those present was Frank Spadone publisher of the Flying Eaglet and Thomas Wass a prominent Coin dealer.

Among the exhibits of the evening was an 1856 Flying Eagle cent in proof, and one 1877 Indian cent in proof, quite a few of the key Lincoln cents were on display in B.U.

The plans for the New Jersey State Coin Convention are being well received and I am sure it will be a great success. Interested parties please contact Jack W. Nannery, Secy., Newark Coin Club, 282 Powers St., Brooklyn, New York.

LIBERTY BELL COIN CLUB

A record attendance was established at our Jan. 14th meeting. 46 members and 15 guests made for a very lively evening. This turnout was most encouraging since this coin club has only been in existence a little over a year. The rapid growth of our numismatic fraternity necessitated the appointment of 8 additional members to our Board of Directors. Newly elected officers, who automatically are Board members, are as follows. Pres: Pat Vassalluzzo; Vice Pres., Don Perri; Treas., Sam Burgdorf; Rec. Secy. Leo Nacelli; Secty. Joe Weintraub; Sgt. at Arms, Harold Sullivan.

The usual business meeting, exhibits and auction took place in rapid fashion. New business concerned itself with diversified subjects. The American Red Cross was contacted in a report read by Don Perri. Our club has volunteered to entertain servicemen in Veterans Hospitals around the Phila. area. A night will be selected wherein members will conduct a regular coin "Meeting Nite" for these vets.

The idea of having future proof coins made with a Mint mark on them was first proposed to the Director of the Mint by the Liberty Bell Coin Club. At this meeting, letters received from the Brooklyn Coin Club and the Newark Coin Club were read. Both of these established clubs heartily endorsed our original idea and they both planned to write the Director of the Mint in Washington informing him of their endorsement of Mint marks on all future proof coins.

A most instructive talk on Porcelain money was given by Sam Burgdorf. Exhibit winners were: Sam Burgdorf (Porcelain money) 1st Prize, Walt Stepek (Liberty nickels) 2nd Prize. An uncirculated set of Wash. Quarters was raffled off as the "Giant Door Prize". Winner of this choice set was Granville French.

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month at the Feltonville Recreation Center located at Wyoming Ave. and Ella St. Information regarding any aspect of our club other than that already furnished may be obtained by writing to Secty: Joseph Weintraub, 1941 Devereaux St., Phila. 49, Pa.
